

桶川市都市計画基本図 其 1 1

This is a detailed topographic map of a region in Japan, likely a part of the Kanto Plain. The map shows a dense network of roads, rivers, and urban areas. Key features include:

- Urban Areas: The map shows a dense network of roads and buildings, indicating a highly developed urban area. The central part of the map is labeled "川田谷" (Kawadaya), which is a district in Maebashi City.
- Rivers and Water Bodies: Several rivers are shown, including the Tone River (利根川) and the Arakawa River (荒川). There are also several ponds and reservoirs, such as the "上日出谷池" (Ushidataya Pond) and "下日出谷池" (Shidataya Pond).
- Topography: The map includes numerous elevation markers, indicating the terrain's slope and height. The highest points are marked with elevations up to 21.4 meters.
- Infrastructure: The map shows a complex network of roads, including major highways and local streets. There are also several bridges crossing the rivers.
- Landmarks: Several landmarks are labeled, including "川田谷小学校" (Kawadaya Elementary School), "川田谷公民館" (Kawadaya Community Center), and "川田谷駅" (Kawadaya Station).

The map is oriented with North at the top. The grid system shows coordinates ranging from 115.0 to 116.0 Easting and 35.0 to 36.0 Northing.
